

Marty Buchman of Paragould, president of the CRDC board, welcomes the Volunteer Banquet celebrants.

These are just some of the many volunteers and staff members recognized at the annual Head Start Volunteer Banquet held in May.

Annual Head Start Volunteer Banquet was better'n ever!

Robert Wilford, CRDC executive director, delivers remarks to the big crowd at the banquet in May.

Jonesboro Mayor Hubert Brodell appeared at the banquet for the last time as chief executive.

The head table was filled with dignitaries and it was almost time for the big event to get underway.

Charlie Granberry, director of child development for CRDC, addresses the large crowd gathered for the banquet.

As is always the case, Craighead County Judge Dale Haas was a big hit at the annual banquet.

Smiling faces from happy people was the order of the evening at the annual Head Start Volunteer Banquet.

Jonesboro Mayor Hubert Brodell sits in background as CRDC Board Member Mildred Lewellen addresses group.

The food was delicious and added much to the festive atmosphere that was permeating the banquet when hundreds gathered to pay homage to the volunteers who give so much to Head Start.
