

There's always a need to break for some fun and that's just what the CRDC team did at the Corporate Games competition held recently at Jonesboro. The event has become a regular for CRDC staff members.

Shirley Barrett, Miranda Kerperien and Robert Wilford man the contributions table at the Jonesboro WalMart in an effort to raise funds for the Supply Our Schools program.

Morgan Nick Alert activities were just part of the many activities celebrating Community Action Month. In this photo, students at the Blessed Sacrament school in Jonesboro were enjoying the event.

Natoya Buchanan, Miranda Kerperien and Carrie Cooper tout CRDC at recent Business Expo. Thousands of visitors came to view the large number of displays and booths set up for the annual event.

Arkansas State University students turned out in large numbers to participate in a volunteer event that included painting the Lawrence Hamilton Building, home of a CRDC Head Start center and Human Services offices.

Ray Jones (seated behind desk), substance abuse treatment director for CRDC, enjoys a light moment during licensure discussion with state Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention representatives. Also present were Robert Wilford, CRDC executive director; and CRDC Board Member Oscar Grant.

Ricardo Murillo of ConAgra Foods (center) meets with Fran Gillins and Robert Wilford to discuss opportunities for CRDC to reach out to the Hispanic community.

Russell Hooks of the Arkansas Community Action Agencies Association (ACAAA) in Little Rock visits with Human Services personnel and the executive director.

Carvis Campbell of the Arkansas Community Action Agencies Association directs a ROMA seminar at the Head Start central office facility in Jonesboro.

A group of happy CRDC seniors is all smiles during activities at the Senior Games held recently at the Arkansas State University Convocation Center.

CRDC Board President Marty Buchman (left) joined Robert Wilford, executive director, and others for a visit of CRDC rental properties throughout the agencies service area.

Ashley Bowie (right), housing transition manager for CRDC, and Kenny Gunn, construction supervisor for CRDC, accept a contribution from Bev Williams, then manager of the Home Depot in Jonesboro.

Joan Cudd (right), CRDC family and community services assistant for Greene County, helps volunteers in the cleanup of the city park in Delaplaine in May. The cleanup was a huge success and the park is being kept clean by local residents.

CRDC Child Development Head Start's Transition Conference attracted a large group from throughout the area to the event held in April in Jonesboro.